End of Life Announcement: Do The Math Now!

The middle school math program, Do the Math Now!, is being discontinued and will no longer be available for sale after December 31, 2020.

Beginning on August 10, 2020, the digital components of Do the Math Now!, including the specific assessments with ProgressSpace will no longer be available for sale. From August 10, 2020 through December 31, 2020 we will provide customer support with fixes for critical bugs and technical issues. However, this support will end on January 1, 2021.

Do the Math Now! print components will continue to be available through the end of the year. However, cost proposals containing Do The Math Now! must be issued by November 15, 2020 with purchase orders complete by December 31, 2020.
